SPIRITUALITY, HEALTH AND WHOLENESS

the second in a two-part series on Spirituality, Health and Wholeness. The forum will view the film: Spirituality and Religion: Complementary Forces in the Soul's Quest for Enlightenment. Many people refrain from identifying themselves with any particular religion, yet they express a keen interest in nourishing their own sense of the sacred. What, then, does it mean to be spiritual but not religious? And how might individuals benefit by joining their spirituality to the religion of their choice? Participants include the Reverend Scotty McLennan, Dean for Religious Life at Stanford University; James Forbes Jr., of New York City's Riverside Church; B. Alan Wallace, of the Santa Barbara Institute for Consciousness Studies; Sister Joan Chittister; retired Episcopal Bishop John Shelby Spong; and Huston Smith, philosopher of world religions.

Sermon Reflection Group will meet this week.

Coffee and light refreshments served.
