Please join our pledging family.

I/we pledge a total of $ _____ for the calendar year of 2010.

(This commitment may be increased or decreased at any time due to changing circumstances.)

- I (we) plan to make our offerings weekly monthly quarterly one payment
- send offering envelopes do not send offering envelopes VISA / MC (see other side)
- Please send more information about naming The Redeemer in my/our estate plans.
- For your information, The Redeemer is already in my/our estate plans.

We intend to publish a monthly list of family names (no amounts) as parishioners make their commitments to the stewardship campaign in monthly issues of The Voice. Increased pledges will be indicated with a star. If you do not wish your name to appear in the list, please place a check in this box.

Ways to make your pledge and gifts to Church of the Redeemer

Annual Pledge Return this card to make a pledge for the 2010 calendar year. You will receive quarterly statements to keep you informed about the progression of your payments toward the completion of your gift along with a year-end statement for your tax purposes.

Cash or Check The only way for us to track your gifts of cash is by the use of the offering envelopes that are sent to you every other month. If you are not receiving these envelopes and would like to, please check the box on the other side. Checks may be deposited in the offering plate (loose or in offering envelopes), mailed at any time or returned along with this pledge card.

Gifts of Appreciated Stock By donating appreciated stock, you can take advantage of tax credits. Please contact Denise Gibbone (610-525-2486 ext. 11) for the information you will need to provide to your broker.

Tax-Free IRA Rollover For individuals 70 ½ or older, there may be tax advantages to making a donation from your IRA. This tax incentive ends December 31, 2009. More details are available from the parish office.
