Service of Healing and Light in a Time of Economic Turmoil

These are distressing times for many people around the world. With millions losing their jobs and homes in foreclosure, our own community is not immune from the effects of the current economic crisis.

In response to the growing sense of anxiety, on Sunday, April 19 at 4:00 pm, Church of the Redeemer will offer a service of Healing and Light in a time of darkness. All in the community are welcome and encouraged to join in this simple service of worship and prayer. Those attending will be given the opportunity to light a candle of hope for themselves or others in economic distress.

Sunday services at The Redeemer are at 7:45, 9, and 11:15 am with Christian Education for all at 10:15 am. The church is located at Pennswood and New Gulph Roads in Bryn Mawr. Parking is available. Please call 610-525-2486 or visit the church's website at www.TheRedeemer.org for directions to the church and more details on this and other programs.
