Church of the Redeemer Presents University of Toronto MacMillan Singers

Award-winning chorus in concert for Haiti earthquake relief

BRYN MAWR, PA – February 1, 2010 –

Church of the Redeemer is pleased to announce a performance by the University of Toronto MacMillan Singers on Friday, February 12, 2010 at 8:00 pm. The University of Toronto MacMillan Singers was founded in 1994 by Doreen Rao to celebrate the legacy of Sir Ernest MacMillan, an inspired performer and devoted teacher who influenced every aspect of Canada's musical life. This award-winning ensemble, conducted in this performance by Mark Vuorinen, regularly performs with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Peter Oundjian. The MacMillan Singers have enjoyed numerous collaborations with Helmuth Rilling, Nexus, the Elmer Iseler Singers and the Gryphon Trio. Recent seasons have included festival performances of Bach Cantatas, Mozart C minor Mass, Stravinsky Les Noces, and the Mozart Requiem. In October 2007, the MacMillan Singers performed the St. John Passion BWV 245 in the Toronto Bach Festival. Last season the MacMillan Singers performed John Burge's Mass for Prisoners of Conscience at New York's Lincoln Center. The MacMillan Singers are in the region to perform at the Eastern Division Conference of the American Choral Directors Association.

A suggested $10 donation at the door will benefit Haitian earthquake relief. The concert is free for students with an I.D.

Church of the Redeemer is located at Pennswood and New Gulph Roads in Bryn Mawr, PA. There is parking available.
