Tewkesbury Abbey Choir at Church of the Redeemer

Church of the Redeemer at Pennswood and New Gulph Roads in Bryn Mawr is pleased to present the Tewkesbury Abbey Schola Cantorum on its American tour. The choir will perform a concert on Friday, March 27 at 7:00 pm in the Church.

Tewkesbury Abbey Schola Cantorum is the choir of men and boys which sings the weekday services in Tewkesbury Abbey. The choristers moved to Dean Close Preparatory School, Cheltenham (Gloucestershire, England) in September 2006 when The Abbey School closed. Dean Close, the choir school for Tewkesbury Abbey, is a full member of The Choir Schools' Association. The choir has made numerous recordings on the Delphian, Guild, Naxos, Priory, Regent and Signum labels. 'The Three Kings' was released in November 2007 to great critical acclaim. The Church Times wrote 'I doubt whether there are many more admirable choirs outside Westminster, Oxford and Cambridge than the Tewkesbury Abbey Schola Cantorum. The choir will perform a program of music by Byrd, Tallis, Weelkes, Bach, Mendelssohn, Poulenc, Macmillan and Gabriel Jackson.

Tickets for the concert are $20 ($15 for seniors and students—children under 12 free) and will be sold at the door on the evening of the concert.

Redeemer's Great Concerts for Great Causes is an exceptional cultural program to support worthy charities. The concert series, part of the Church of the Redeemer's tradition of offering musical performances, supports the outreach program of the Church for the benefit of the African Children's Mission (HIV/AIDS services in Malawi, Africa) and Interfaith Hospitality Network of the Main Line (providing temporary shelter to homeless persons).

Sunday services at The Redeemer are at 7:45, 9, and 11:15 am. The church is located at Pennswood and New Gulph Roads in Bryn Mawr. Parking is available. Please call 610-525-2486 or visit the church's website at www.TheRedeemer.org for directions to the church and more details on this and other programs.
