

Praying and Studying THE GREAT LITANY

Join

Judith Sullivan and John Wallingford to explore this ancient, timeless, and beautiful prayer

Saturday, March 20, 2010

9:30am to 12:30pm

Parish House Assembly Room

The Great Litany, which we chant during Lent, is one of the oldest forms of prayer found in The Book of Common Prayer. It was the first rite of the Church to be adapted into an English language translation by Archbishop Thomas Cranmer and was included in the first prayer book published in 1544. Cranmer drew on prayers dating from before the fourth century and from litanies developed by St. John Chrysostom and Martin Luther.

